Demand Triples Recruiting Business

Roanoke, TX (October 10, 2017) Aviation Search Group, a direct-hire recruiting firm for the aviation industry, is reporting a 194% increase in search assignments compared to 2016. The recruiting firm's growth has been experienced through FAA part 91, 135, and MRO business.

Phil Holsinger, an executive recruiting manager for Aviation Search Group (NBAA booth N3216) said, "The industry is relying on us for their hiring needs due to the difficulty of finding available qualified professionals." He added, "Our IQR process has been instrumental in removing any hesitation a company may have when deciding to use a recruiting firm."

Aviation Search Group has been providing direct-hire recruiting services for over 18 years. When asked why more and more companies are engaging Aviation Search Group's recruiting services, Holsinger said, "Aviation companies recognize the return on investment when selecting our firm." He continued, "We are a confident group, with an exceptional product, and tenured staff."

Aviation Search Group also attributes the increase in business to an improving economy. "Flight hours are up and aviation professionals are needed in all facets of business aviation," said Holsinger.
